TERMS OF ENTRY

You must complete an entry form for each bottle entered

- All Wine and Beer entrants must be available to attend and offer tastings to patrons at the Meet the Makers event on Saturday 23 March 2024 at Bundoora Homestead. We recommend entrants bring at least 6 x 750ml bottles of each entry to competition to offer as tastings on the day.
- Passata, Preserved Olives, Ajvar, Pickled vegetables and Sourdough entrants are warmly invited to attend the Meet the Makers event but are not required to showcase/offer tastings.

Judging of entries occurs prior but awards are presented at the event. The 'People's Choice' awards will be awarded at the Meet the Makers event.

When preparing your entry please ensure that all bottles are cleaned and sanitised.

- This can be achieved by cleaning the bottles with hot soapy water, then applying a sanitiser which is a food grade disinfectant.
- Hands must be washed regularly with soap and dried with paper towel.
- All bottles must be sealed tightly.
- Please observe best food handling practices when preparing your entry. The following is a helpful resource:
