ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA BY CATEGORY

Citizen of the Year

Presented to an individual over 21 years of age. The nominee must be an Australian citizen who either lives, works, volunteers or studies in the City of Darebin, and who has made a noteworthy contribution during the current year and/or given outstanding service to the local community over several years.

Young Citizen of the Year (under 21 years)

Presented to an individual up to 21 years of age. The nominee must be an Australian citizen who either lives, works, volunteers or studies in the City of Darebin, and who has made a noteworthy contribution during the current year and/or given outstanding service to the local community over several years.

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Community Leader of the Year

Presented to an individual who symbolises the values important to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and is an inspirational leader and a role model for others. The nominee will have made significant impact in the Darebin community, through professional or voluntary undertakings, over several years.

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Emerging YOUNG Community Leader of the Year (under 21 years)

Presented to an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person up to the age of 21. The nominee will have made an outstanding contribution to their community and/or demonstrated excellence in their chosen field and is regarded as an inspirational role model for other members of the community.

Please note: Council recognises priority groups within CALD communities including newly arrived, refugee, asylum seekers, migrant, and organisations representing different CALD communities.

Community Group of the Year

A community group of four or more people who have performed a service to the community. This award targets voluntary groups with minimal funding – large funded organisations are excluded. The contribution can occur in the year prior to the award being presented or as recognition of a longstanding commitment and service to the community.

Sustainability Award

A sustainability champion who has or is delivering a project/program/activity which delivers genuine and measurable action in response to an environmental issue relevant to Darebin, actively engages the local community, and whose project/program/activity complements Council's environmental priorities.

Lifetime Achievement

Presented to an individual to recognise outstanding leadership and commitment over a lifetime of achievements and service. This award celebrates longevity, legacy and impact on the community made over a number of years.

CALD Elder Community Leader of the Year

Presented to an individual who symbolises the values important to the CALD community and is an inspirational leader and role model for others. The nominee will have made significant impact in the Darebin community, through professional or voluntary undertakings, over several years.

CALD Emerging Community Leader of the Year (under 21 years)

Presented to a CALD person up to the age of 21. The nominee will have made an outstanding contribution to their community and/or demonstrated excellence in their chosen field and is regarded as an inspirational role model for other members of the community.
